Section 2. Term
The term of this Agreement shall be for a period of one (1) year from the Effective Date, unless sooner terminated in accordance with the provisions herein. Section 3. Position and Duties
Employer hereby employs Employee, and Employee accepts employment with Employer, to serve as an independent contractor responsible for providing consulting and business development services as detailed in Exhibit A attached hereto and incorporated by reference. Employee shall perform all duties and responsibilities in a professional and timely manner, consistent with industry standards and in compliance with all applicable laws and regulations.

Section 4. Compensation

Section 6. Confidentiality and Non-Disclosure
Employee agrees to maintain strict confidentiality regarding all proprietary information, trade secrets, business strategies, client lists, and other confidential materials of Employer. This obligation shall survive termination of this Agreement indefinitely. Employee shall not disclose such information to any third party without prior written consent from Employer.

Section 8. Termination Without Cause
Either party may terminate this Agreement without cause by providing written notice of at least forty-five (45) days to the other party. Upon such termination, Employer shall pay Employee all compensation earned through the termination date on a pro-rata basis if termination occurs mid-month.

This Agreement, including Exhibit A, constitutes the entire agreement between the parties and supersedes all prior negotiations, representations, and agreements, whether written or oral. No amendment or modification of this Agreement shall be valid unless made in writing and signed by both parties.

Section 11. Severability

If any provision of this Agreement is found to be invalid or unenforceable, such provision shall be modified to the minimum extent necessary to make it enforceable, or if not possible, severed, and the remaining provisions shall remain in full force and effect.
