EMPLOYMENT AGREEMENT

Section 1. Parties and Effective Date

This Employment Agreement ("Agreement") is entered into as of January 15, 2024, between Prestige Inc., a corporation organized under the laws of New York ("Company"), and Umbrella Corp., a business entity ("Employee").

Section 2. Position and Responsibilities

Employee agrees to serve as a full-time consultant and operational manager for the Company. Employee shall be responsible for overseeing day-to-day business operations, managing client relationships, coordinating with internal departments, and performing such other duties as reasonably assigned by Company management. Employee reports directly to the Chief Operating Officer or designated representative of the Company.

Section 3. Term of Employment

The term of this Agreement shall be for a period of one year, commencing on January 15, 2024, and ending on January 14, 2025, unless earlier terminated in accordance with the provisions of this Agreement. Upon mutual written consent, the parties may renew this Agreement for additional one-year terms.

Section 4. Compensation

The Company agrees to pay Employee a total annual compensation of Twenty-Three Thousand Dollars ($23,000.00). This compensation shall be paid bi-weekly via direct deposit to Employee's designated bank account. Compensation shall be subject to all applicable federal, state, and local tax withholdings and deductions required by law. Employee shall receive no additional bonuses unless explicitly authorized in writing by the Company.

Section 5. Benefits and Leave

During the term of employment, Employee shall be entitled to ten days of paid vacation annually, five days of paid sick leave annually, and observance of all standard Company holidays. Benefits shall accrue on a pro-rata basis if employment begins or ends mid-year. Employee shall be responsible for all health insurance arrangements independently unless the Company provides group coverage to which Employee may enroll at Employee's own expense.

Section 6. Termination for Cause

The Company may terminate this Agreement immediately and without notice for Cause, defined as Employee's willful misconduct, repeated violation of Company policies, gross negligence in performing job duties, conviction of a felony, or material breach of this Agreement that remains uncured for ten days after written notice from the Company.

Section 7. Termination Without Cause

Either party may terminate this Agreement without Cause upon providing thirty days' written notice to the other party. During the notice period, Employee shall continue performing assigned duties and receiving full compensation. If the Company elects to terminate without Cause, Employee shall be entitled to payment of all accrued compensation through the final day of employment but shall receive no severance beyond this accrued amount.

Section 8. Confidentiality and Proprietary Information

Employee agrees to maintain strict confidentiality regarding all Company trade secrets, client information, business strategies, and proprietary materials. This obligation shall survive termination of employment indefinitely. Employee shall return all Company materials, documents, and equipment upon termination.

Section 9. Non-Competition

During the term of employment and for a period of six months following termination, Employee agrees not to engage in any business activity that directly competes with the Company within a fifty-mile radius of the Company's principal place of business.

Section 10. Governing Law and Dispute Resolution

This Agreement shall be governed by and construed in accordance with the laws of the State of New York, without regard to conflict of laws principles. Any disputes arising from this Agreement shall be resolved through binding arbitration administered by the American Arbitration Association, with proceedings to occur in New York County.

Section 11. Entire Agreement

This Agreement constitutes the entire understanding between the parties and supersedes all prior negotiations and agreements. Any modifications must be made in writing and signed by authorized representatives of both parties.
