EMPLOYMENT AGREEMENT

Section 1. Parties

This Employment Agreement ("Agreement") is entered into as of January 15, 2024, between Waystar Inc., a Delaware corporation ("Employer"), and Cyberdyne Corp., a Delaware corporation ("Employee").

Section 2. Position and Duties

Employee shall serve as Senior Systems Integration Consultant. Employee shall perform all duties and responsibilities as assigned by Employer's management, including but not limited to systems analysis, process optimization, technical documentation, staff training, and project implementation. Employee shall report directly to the Vice President of Operations and shall comply with all company policies and procedures.

Section 3. Term of Employment

The employment relationship shall commence on February 1, 2024, and shall continue for a period of five (5) years, unless sooner terminated in accordance with the provisions of this Agreement. Upon expiration of the initial five-year term, this Agreement may be renewed by mutual written consent of both parties.

Section 4. Compensation

Employer shall compensate Employee for services rendered at the rate of Eight Thousand Dollars ($8,000) per month, payable in accordance with Employer's standard payroll practices. This compensation shall be subject to all applicable federal, state, and local withholdings and deductions required by law. Compensation shall be paid via direct deposit on the last business day of each month.

Section 5. Benefits

Employee shall be eligible to participate in all benefits programs offered by Employer to employees in similar positions, including health insurance, dental coverage, vision coverage, and a 401(k) retirement plan. Employer shall pay seventy-five percent (75%) of health insurance premiums. Benefits shall commence on the first day of the month following Employee's date of hire and shall be subject to plan terms and conditions.

Section 6. Work Schedule

Employee shall maintain a standard work schedule of forty (40) hours per week, Monday through Friday, from 8:00 AM to 5:00 PM, or as otherwise directed by management. Employee may be required to work additional hours as necessary to complete assigned projects. Employer shall compensate overtime hours in accordance with applicable federal and state wage and hour laws.

Section 7. Termination Without Cause

Either party may terminate this Agreement without cause upon providing thirty (30) days' written notice to the other party. Upon termination without cause by Employer, Employee shall receive a severance payment equal to one (1) month of base compensation, provided Employee executes a release of claims.

Section 8. Termination for Cause

Employer may terminate this Agreement for cause without notice if Employee engages in gross misconduct, willful insubordination, theft, breach of confidentiality, violation of company policy, or failure to perform essential job duties. Cause shall also include criminal conviction or plea of guilty to any felony or crime involving dishonesty.

Section 9. Confidentiality and Intellectual Property

Employee acknowledges that Employee shall have access to Employer's proprietary information, trade secrets, and confidential business data. Employee agrees to maintain strict confidentiality of all such information both during and after employment. All work product, inventions, and intellectual property developed by Employee during employment shall be the exclusive property of Employer.

Section 10. At-Will Employment Modification

Notwithstanding any other provision, employment under this Agreement is at-will and may be terminated by either party at any time. However, termination without cause requires thirty (30) days' notice as specified in Section 7.

Section 11. Governing Law
This Agreement shall be governed by and construed in accordance with the laws of the State of Delaware, without regard to conflict of law principles. Both parties consent to jurisdiction in Delaware state and federal courts.

Section 12. Entire Agreement
This Agreement constitutes the entire agreement between the parties and supersedes all prior negotiations, representations, and agreements, whether written or oral.
