EMPLOYMENT AGREEMENT

Section 1. Parties and Effective Date
This Employment Agreement ("Agreement") is entered into effective as of January 1, 2024 (the "Effective Date"), by and between Dunder Inc., a Florida corporation ("Company"), and Aperture Corp., a business entity duly organized and existing under the laws of Florida ("Employee").

Section 2. Term
The term of this Agreement shall be three (3) years commencing on the Effective Date and ending on December 31, 2026, unless sooner terminated in accordance with the provisions of this Agreement. Upon expiration, this Agreement may be renewed by mutual written consent of both parties.

Section 3. Position and Duties
Employee is hired in the capacity of Strategic Business Consultant and shall report directly to the designated representative of Company. Employee shall perform all duties and responsibilities customary and reasonable for this position, including but not limited to project management, client relations, and business development activities as directed by Company management.

Section 4. Compensation
Company shall pay Employee a base annual salary of One Hundred Four Thousand Dollars ($104,000), payable in accordance with Company's standard payroll practices, typically on a bi-weekly basis. This compensation is subject to all applicable federal, state, and local withholdings and taxes.

Section 5. Benefits
Employee shall be entitled to participate in all health insurance, retirement, and other benefit plans maintained by Company on the same terms and conditions as are afforded to similarly situated employees of Company. Specific benefit details shall be provided to Employee in Company's standard benefits documentation.

Section 6. Performance Standards
Employee shall maintain professional standards and perform assigned duties in a competent and timely manner. Company shall provide Employee with periodic performance evaluations. Failure to meet reasonable performance standards may result in disciplinary action up to and including termination.

Section 7. Confidentiality and Intellectual Property
Employee acknowledges that during employment, Employee may have access to proprietary information, trade secrets, and client data belonging to Company. Employee agrees to maintain strict confidentiality regarding all such information during and after employment. All work product, inventions, and intellectual property created by Employee during the term of this Agreement shall be the exclusive property of Company.

Section 8. Termination for Cause
Company may terminate this Agreement immediately for cause, including but not limited to gross misconduct, willful insubordination, theft, violation of confidentiality obligations, or material breach of this Agreement. Cause termination shall result in forfeiture of any unpaid benefits or severance beyond earned compensation.

Section 9. Termination Without Cause
Either party may terminate this Agreement without cause upon providing forty-five (45) days' written notice to the other party. During the notice period, Employee shall continue to perform assigned duties and shall be compensated at the regular rate until the termination date. Termination without cause shall entitle Employee to all earned but unpaid compensation.

Section 10. Non-Compete and Non-Solicitation
During the term of employment and for a period of one (1) year following any termination, Employee shall not engage in any business that directly competes with Company's operations within the state of Florida. Additionally, Employee shall not solicit or encourage any clients or employees of Company to cease their relationship with Company.

Section 11. Dispute Resolution
Any disputes arising from this Agreement shall first be subject to good faith negotiation between the parties. If unresolved, disputes shall be resolved through mediation in Broward County, Florida, prior to litigation.

Section 12. Governing Law and Jurisdiction
This Agreement shall be governed by and construed in accordance with the laws of the State of Florida, without regard to conflicts of law principles. Both parties consent to the exclusive jurisdiction of the state and federal courts located in Florida.

Section 13. Entire Agreement
This Agreement constitutes the entire agreement between the parties and supersedes all prior negotiations, understandings, and agreements. Any modifications must be made in writing and signed by both parties.

Section 14. Severability
If any provision of this Agreement is found to be invalid or unenforceable, the remaining provisions shall continue in full force and effect.
