EMPLOYMENT AGREEMENT

Section 1. Parties and Effective Date
This Employment Agreement ("Agreement") is entered into effective as of January 1, 2025, between Cyberdyne Inc., a corporation organized and existing under the laws of Florida ("Employer"), and Hooli Corp., a corporation organized and existing under the laws of California ("Employee").

Section 2. Position and Duties
Employee shall serve as Senior Development Consultant to Employer. Employee shall be responsible for providing technical consulting services, project management, software development oversight, and such other duties as may be reasonably assigned by Employer from time to time. Employee shall report directly to the Vice President of Operations or such other supervisor as Employer may designate.

Section 3. Term of Employment
The initial term of this Agreement shall be for a period of one (1) year commencing on the Effective Date and continuing through December 31, 2025, unless sooner terminated in accordance with the provisions hereof. Upon mutual written consent of both parties, this Agreement may be renewed for additional terms.

Section 4. Compensation
Employee shall receive an annual base salary of One Hundred Ninety-Four Thousand Dollars ($194,000), payable in accordance with Employer's standard payroll practices, typically on a bi-weekly basis. This compensation shall be subject to all applicable federal, state, and local tax withholdings and other deductions required by law.

Section 5. Benefits
Employee shall be entitled to participate in all employee benefits, health insurance, retirement plans, and other fringe benefits maintained by Employer for similarly situated employees, in accordance with the terms and conditions of those plans. Employee shall accrue paid time off at the rate established by Employer's standard policies, currently fifteen (15) days annually.

Section 6. Performance Expectations
Employee shall perform all duties in a professional manner, comply with all applicable laws and regulations, and adhere to Employer's policies and procedures as set forth in the Employee Handbook and as may be amended from time to time. Employee shall maintain confidentiality regarding all proprietary and sensitive information obtained during the course of employment.

Section 7. Termination for Cause
Employer may terminate this Agreement for Cause, without providing advance notice or pay in lieu of notice, upon the occurrence of any of the following: (a) material breach of this Agreement by Employee; (b) gross negligence or willful misconduct; (c) conviction of any felony; (d) violation of Employer's code of conduct or confidentiality policies; or (e) repeated failure to perform assigned duties after written warning.

Section 8. Termination Without Cause
Either party may terminate this Agreement without Cause upon providing sixty (60) days' written notice to the other party. Upon termination without Cause, Employee shall receive all accrued but unpaid salary and vacation days through the effective date of termination. If Employer terminates Employee without Cause, Employee shall also receive severance pay equal to one (1) month of base salary.

Section 9. Intellectual Property
All work product, inventions, discoveries, and intellectual property created by Employee during the term of employment shall be the exclusive property of Employer. Employee shall execute any documents reasonably necessary to perfect Employer's ownership rights.

Section 10. Confidentiality

Employee acknowledges that during employment, Employee will have access to confidential business information, trade secrets, and proprietary data. Employee shall not disclose such information to any third party without Employer's prior written consent, either during employment or after termination.

Section 11. Governing Law and Dispute Resolution
This Agreement shall be governed by and construed in accordance with the laws of the State of Florida, without regard to its conflict of laws principles. Any disputes arising from this Agreement shall be subject to binding arbitration in accordance with Florida law.

Section 12. Entire Agreement
This Agreement constitutes the entire agreement between the parties and supersedes all prior negotiations, representations, and agreements, whether written or oral.
