EMPLOYMENT AGREEMENT

Section 1. Parties and Effective Date

This Employment Agreement ("Agreement") is entered into as of January 1, 2024, between Bluth Inc., a Delaware corporation ("Employer"), and Aperture Corp., a Delaware corporation ("Employee"). The parties acknowledge that Employee shall commence employment on the date first written above or such later date as mutually agreed in writing.

Section 2. Position and Duties

Employee shall serve as Senior Operations Manager and shall report directly to the Chief Executive Officer of Employer. Employee shall be responsible for overseeing operational efficiency, managing cross-functional teams, and implementing strategic initiatives as directed by senior management. Employee shall perform all duties and responsibilities customary to this position and such other duties as may be reasonably assigned from time to time.

Section 3. Term of Employment

The term of this Agreement shall commence on January 1, 2024, and shall continue for a period of five (5) years, unless sooner terminated in accordance with the provisions of this Agreement. Upon expiration of the initial five-year term, the Agreement shall automatically renew for successive one-year periods unless either party provides written notice of non-renewal at least one hundred eighty (180) days prior to the expiration of the then-current term.

Section 4. Compensation

Employer shall pay Employee an annual base salary of One Hundred Twelve Thousand Dollars ($112,000), payable in accordance with Employer's standard payroll practices. Such compensation shall be subject to all applicable withholdings and deductions required by law. Employee shall be eligible for annual merit-based salary reviews at Employer's sole discretion, and any salary adjustments shall be documented in writing.

Section 5. Benefits

Employee shall be entitled to participate in all employee benefits programs, plans, and policies maintained by Employer, including but not limited to health insurance, dental insurance, retirement plans, and paid time off, on terms no less favorable than those offered to similarly situated employees. The specific terms and conditions of such benefits shall be governed by the applicable plan documents and Employer's policies in effect from time to time.

Section 6. At-Will Employment

Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in this Agreement, employment shall be at-will, meaning either party may terminate this Agreement at any time and for any lawful reason or no reason, subject to the notice requirements set forth in Section 7.

Section 7. Termination Procedures

Either party may terminate this Agreement upon providing ninety (90) days' written notice to the other party. Notice of termination shall be delivered personally or sent via overnight courier or certified mail to the addresses specified in Section 10. During the ninety-day notice period, Employee shall continue to perform all duties and shall remain entitled to all compensation and benefits under this Agreement.

Section 8. Severance

Upon termination by Employer without cause following the notice period specified in Section 7, Employee shall receive severance compensation equal to one month of base salary, payable within thirty (30) days of the termination date, contingent upon Employee's execution of a release of claims in form acceptable to Employer.

Section 9. Confidentiality and Intellectual Property

Employee agrees that all information, documents, and materials created or developed during employment, including but not limited to trade secrets, business plans, customer information, and technical data, shall be the exclusive property of Employer. Employee shall not disclose any confidential information either during or after employment without Employer's prior written consent.

Section 10. Governing Law

This Agreement shall be governed by and construed in accordance with the laws of the State of Delaware, without regard to conflicts of law principles. All disputes arising under this Agreement shall be subject to the exclusive jurisdiction of the Delaware Court of Chancery.

Section 11. Entire Agreement

This Agreement constitutes the entire understanding between the parties and supersedes all prior negotiations, representations, and agreements, whether written or oral.
