EMPLOYMENT AGREEMENT

Section 1. Parties and Effective Date
This Employment Agreement ("Agreement") is entered into effective as of January 1, 2024, between Acme Inc., a Texas corporation ("Company"), and Globex Corp., a Delaware corporation ("Contractor").

Section 2. Position and Duties
Contractor agrees to serve as Senior Consultant to Company. Contractor shall perform all duties and responsibilities as assigned by Company's management, including but not limited to business development, project management, strategic planning, and related professional services. Contractor shall report directly to the Chief Operating Officer or such other supervisor as Company designates.

Section 3. Term
The initial term of this Agreement shall commence on January 1, 2024, and shall continue for three (3) years, unless earlier terminated pursuant to Section 5. Upon expiration of the initial term, this Agreement may be renewed by mutual written consent of both parties.

Section 4. Compensation and Benefits
Company shall pay Contractor an annual fee of One Hundred Twenty-Four Thousand Dollars ($124,000.00), payable in equal monthly installments of Ten Thousand Three Hundred Thirty-Three Dollars and Thirty-Three Cents ($10,333.33) on the last business day of each month. Contractor shall be responsible for all applicable self-employment taxes and shall receive no employee benefits, including health insurance, retirement plans, workers' compensation, or unemployment insurance. Contractor may be eligible for performance bonuses at Company's sole discretion, subject to written authorization.

Section 5. Termination
Either party may terminate this Agreement at any time upon providing forty-five (45) days' written notice to the other party. Such notice shall specify the termination date and provide the reasons for termination if required by law. Upon termination without cause, Company shall pay Contractor compensation through the termination date plus any accrued but unpaid fees. Immediate termination for cause is permitted if Contractor materially breaches this Agreement and fails to cure such breach within ten (10) business days of written notice.

Section 6. Independent Contractor Status
Contractor is an independent contractor and not an employee of Company. Contractor shall not be entitled to employee benefits, workers' compensation insurance, or unemployment compensation. Contractor is solely responsible for all payroll taxes, insurance, and other statutory obligations. Contractor may perform services for other clients during the term of this Agreement, provided such work does not create a conflict of interest or compete with Company's business interests.

Section 7. Confidentiality and Non-Disclosure
Contractor agrees to maintain strict confidentiality regarding all proprietary information, trade secrets, client lists, financial data, and strategic plans of Company. This obligation shall survive termination of this Agreement for a period of three (3) years. Contractor shall not disclose any confidential information to third parties without prior written consent of Company, except as required by law or court order.

Section 8. Intellectual Property
All work product, documents, inventions, discoveries, and intellectual property created by Contractor during the performance of services shall be the exclusive property of Company. Contractor hereby assigns all rights, title, and interest in such intellectual property to Company. Contractor shall execute any documents reasonably necessary to perfect Company's ownership rights.

Section 9. Governing Law and Jurisdiction
This Agreement shall be governed by and construed in accordance with the laws of the State of Texas, without regard to conflict of law principles. Both parties submit to the exclusive jurisdiction of the state and federal courts located in Texas for resolution of any disputes arising from this Agreement.

Section 10. General Provisions

This Agreement constitutes the entire understanding between the parties and supersedes all prior negotiations, representations, and agreements. No modification shall be valid unless made in writing and signed by authorized representatives of both parties. If any provision is found invalid, the remaining provisions shall continue in full force and effect.
