EMPLOYMENT AGREEMENT

Section 1. Parties and Effective Date

This Employment Agreement ("Agreement") is entered into effective as of January 15, 2024, between Globex Inc., a California corporation ("Employer"), and Aperture Corp., a Delaware corporation ("Contractor").

Section 2. Engagement and Scope of Work

Employer hereby engages Contractor to provide consulting and strategic advisory services related to business development and operational efficiency. Contractor shall perform services as directed by Employer and shall maintain professional standards consistent with industry norms. The specific tasks and deliverables shall be communicated by Employer on a project basis.

Section 3. Term

The initial term of this Agreement shall be one year, commencing on January 15, 2024, and concluding on January 14, 2025, unless earlier terminated pursuant to Section 5 of this Agreement. Either party may renew this Agreement for additional terms by providing written notice of intent to renew at least sixty days prior to expiration of the current term.

Section 4. Compensation

Employer shall compensate Contractor for services rendered at the rate of eight thousand dollars ($8,000) per month, payable on the fifteenth day of each calendar month. Payment shall be made via electronic transfer to an account designated by Contractor. Contractor is responsible for all applicable self-employment taxes and withholdings unless Employer determines Contractor status requires W-2 employment classification.

Section 5. Termination

Either party may terminate this Agreement without cause by providing thirty days written notice to the other party. Termination shall be effective upon the expiration of the thirty-day notice period. Upon termination, Contractor shall immediately cease work, return all Employer property, and shall be compensated only for services rendered through the termination date.

Section 6. Intellectual Property

All work product, materials, documents, and intellectual property created by Contractor in the course of performing services under this Agreement shall be the exclusive property of Employer. Contractor hereby assigns all rights, title, and interest in such materials to Employer. Contractor agrees to execute any documents necessary to perfect Employer's ownership of such intellectual property.

Section 7. Confidentiality

During the term of this Agreement and thereafter, Contractor agrees to maintain confidentiality regarding all proprietary information, trade secrets, business plans, client lists, and other confidential materials belonging to Employer. Contractor shall not disclose such information to third parties without prior written consent from Employer, except as required by law.

Section 8. Representations and Warranties

Contractor represents and warrants that it has the legal authority to enter into this Agreement, that it possesses the necessary skills and qualifications to perform the services, and that its performance shall not violate any third-party intellectual property rights or existing contractual obligations.

Section 9. Independent Contractor Status

Contractor is an independent contractor and not an employee of Employer. Contractor is responsible for all payroll taxes, workers compensation insurance, and other statutory obligations. Contractor shall not represent itself as an employee of Employer or enter into contracts binding Employer without express written authorization.

Section 10. Indemnification

Contractor shall indemnify, defend, and hold harmless Employer from any claims, damages, or liabilities arising from Contractor's negligence, breach of this Agreement, or violation of applicable law in the performance of services.

Section 11. Governing Law

This Agreement shall be governed by and construed in accordance with the laws of the State of California, without regard to its conflict of laws provisions. The parties consent to the exclusive jurisdiction of the state and federal courts located in California.

Section 12. Entire Agreement

This Agreement constitutes the entire agreement between the parties and supersedes all prior negotiations, representations, and agreements. Modifications must be made in writing and signed by both parties.
