EMPLOYMENT AGREEMENT

Section 1. Parties and Effective Date

This Employment Agreement ("Agreement") is entered into as of January 15, 2024, between Oscorp Inc., a corporation organized and existing under the laws of the State of Delaware ("Employer"), and Aperture Corp., a corporation organized and existing under the laws of the State of California ("Employee").

Section 2. Position and Duties

Employee shall serve as Senior Consultant for Employer. Employee agrees to perform all duties and responsibilities as assigned by Employer's management, including but not limited to project analysis, strategic recommendations, and departmental support. Employee shall report directly to the Chief Operating Officer and shall comply with all company policies, procedures, and directives.

Section 3. Term of Employment

This Agreement shall commence on January 15, 2024, and shall continue for a period of one (1) year, unless sooner terminated in accordance with the provisions of this Agreement. Upon expiration of the initial term, either party may elect to renew this Agreement by providing written notice at least sixty (60) days prior to the expiration date.

Section 4. Compensation

Employer shall pay Employee an annual fee of Eight Thousand Dollars ($8,000.00). Compensation shall be paid in equal monthly installments of Six Hundred Sixty-Six Dollars and Sixty-Seven Cents ($666.67), payable on the last business day of each calendar month. Payment shall be made via direct deposit to Employee's designated bank account.

Section 5. Benefits and Expenses

Employee shall be entitled to standard business expense reimbursement in accordance with Employer's expense policy. Receipts and documentation must be submitted within thirty (30) days of the expense being incurred. Employee shall not be entitled to health insurance, retirement benefits, paid time off, or other employee benefits unless separately agreed to in writing by both parties.

Section 6. Independent Contractor Status

Employee is retained as an independent contractor and not as an employee of Employer for purposes of federal and state employment law. Employee shall be responsible for all payroll taxes, self-employment taxes, and other statutory obligations. Employer shall issue a Form 1099 to Employee for tax reporting purposes.

Section 7. Confidentiality and Non-Disclosure

Employee agrees to maintain strict confidentiality regarding all proprietary information, trade secrets, business strategies, client lists, and any other confidential materials disclosed by Employer. This obligation shall survive termination of this Agreement indefinitely. Employee shall not disclose confidential information to any third party without prior written consent from Employer.

Section 8. Intellectual Property

All work product, documents, inventions, discoveries, and intellectual property created by Employee during the term of this Agreement shall be the exclusive property of Employer. Employee hereby assigns all rights, title, and interest in such materials to Employer.

Section 9. Termination

Either party may terminate this Agreement without cause by providing thirty (30) days' written notice to the other party. Termination for cause may be effected immediately upon written notice if Employee breaches any material term of this Agreement or engages in conduct detrimental to Employer's business interests.

Section 10. Termination Obligations

Upon termination, Employee shall immediately return all company property, documents, and materials in Employee's possession. Employee shall cooperate fully in transitioning responsibilities and providing necessary information for business continuity.

Section 11. Governing Law

This Agreement shall be governed by and construed in accordance with the laws of the State of New York, without regard to conflict of law principles. All disputes arising under this Agreement shall be subject to the exclusive jurisdiction of the state and federal courts located in New York County.

Section 12. Entire Agreement

This Agreement constitutes the entire agreement between the parties and supersedes all prior negotiations, representations, and agreements. No modification or amendment shall be valid unless made in writing and signed by both parties.
