NON-DISCLOSURE AGREEMENT

Section 1. Parties and Effective Date

This Non-Disclosure Agreement ("Agreement") is entered into as of the date of the last signature below ("Effective Date") by and between Oscorp Inc., a corporation organized and existing under the laws of the State of Delaware with principal offices located at 1 Oscorp Plaza, New York, New York ("Disclosing Party"), and Tyrell Corp., a corporation organized and existing under the laws of the State of California with principal offices located at 2019 Tyrell Avenue, Los Angeles, California ("Receiving Party").

Section 2. Purpose

The parties wish to explore a potential business opportunity involving the development and commercialization of advanced biotechnology solutions. In connection with this exploration, one or both parties may disclose to the other party certain confidential and proprietary information, technical data, business strategies, financial information, and trade secrets. This Agreement governs the protection and use of such Confidential Information.

Section 3. Definition of Confidential Information

Confidential Information means all non-public information disclosed by one party to the other party, whether orally, visually, in writing, or in electronic form, that is marked as confidential or that reasonably should be understood to be confidential given its nature and circumstances of disclosure. Confidential Information includes but is not limited to research data, formulations, manufacturing processes, marketing plans, financial projections, customer lists, and strategic business plans.

Section 4. Exclusions from Confidential Information

Confidential Information does not include information that: (a) is or becomes publicly available through no breach of this Agreement by the Receiving Party; (b) is rightfully received by the Receiving Party from a third party without confidentiality restrictions; (c) is independently developed by the Receiving Party without use of or reference to the Disclosing Party's Confidential Information; or (d) is required to be disclosed by law, regulation, or court order, provided the Receiving Party provides prompt notice to the Disclosing Party to allow the Disclosing Party to seek protective measures.

Section 5. Obligations of Receiving Party

The Receiving Party agrees to: (a) maintain the Confidential Information in strict confidence using the same degree of care it uses to protect its own confidential information, but no less than reasonable care; (b) limit access to the Confidential Information to employees and contractors who have a legitimate need to know and who are bound by written confidentiality obligations; (c) use the Confidential Information solely for the purpose stated in Section 2; and (d) not disclose the Confidential Information to any third party without the prior written consent of the Disclosing Party.

Section 6. Term and Termination

This Agreement shall commence on the Effective Date and shall continue for a period of three (3) years, unless earlier terminated. Either party may terminate this Agreement upon ninety (90) days' written notice to the other party. Obligations regarding Confidential Information shall survive termination for a period of two (2) years.

Section 7. Consideration

In consideration for the execution of this Agreement and the disclosure of Confidential Information, the Receiving Party shall pay to the Disclosing Party the sum of Sixty Thousand Dollars ($60,000.00) within thirty (30) days of the Effective Date. This payment represents compensation for the preparation, review, and disclosure of Confidential Information.

Section 8. Return of Information

Upon termination of this Agreement or upon request by the Disclosing Party, the Receiving Party shall promptly return or destroy, at the Disclosing Party's election, all Confidential Information and certify such destruction in writing.

Section 9. Disclaimer

The Disclosing Party makes no representations or warranties regarding the accuracy, completeness, or non-infringement of any Confidential Information disclosed hereunder.

Section 10. Governing Law

This Agreement shall be governed by and construed in accordance with the laws of the State of Texas, without regard to its conflict of law principles.

Section 11. Entire Agreement

This Agreement constitutes the entire agreement between the parties regarding the subject matter and supersedes all prior negotiations, understandings, and agreements.
