NON-DISCLOSURE AGREEMENT

This Non-Disclosure Agreement (the "Agreement") is entered into as of the date of last signature below (the "Effective Date") by and between Initech Inc., a corporation organized under the laws of Delaware with its principal place of business at 123 Business Avenue, Austin, Texas 78701 ("Disclosing Party"), and Soylent Corp., a corporation organized under the laws of California with its principal place of business at 456 Innovation Drive, San Francisco, California 94102 ("Receiving Party").

Section 1. Purpose

The parties desire to explore a business opportunity of mutual interest and benefit and, in connection with this exploration, may disclose to each other certain confidential and proprietary information. This Agreement establishes the terms and conditions under which such information shall be protected.

Section 2. Definition of Confidential Information

"Confidential Information" means all non-public information disclosed by the Disclosing Party to the Receiving Party, whether orally, in writing, or in any other form, including but not limited to business plans, financial information, technical data, trade secrets, customer lists, pricing information, strategic initiatives, and product specifications. Confidential Information excludes information that is or becomes publicly available through no breach of this Agreement, is rightfully received by Receiving Party from third parties without confidentiality obligations, is independently developed by Receiving Party without use of Confidential Information, or is required to be disclosed by law or court order.

Section 3. Obligations of Receiving Party

The Receiving Party agrees to maintain the confidentiality of all Confidential Information and agrees not to disclose such information to third parties except to its employees and advisors who have a legitimate need to know and who are bound by confidentiality obligations at least as restrictive as those contained herein. The Receiving Party shall use the Confidential Information solely for the purpose stated in Section 1 and shall protect it using the same degree of care it uses for its own confidential information, but in no case less than reasonable care.

Section 4. Return or Destruction of Confidential Information

Upon termination of this Agreement or upon request by the Disclosing Party, the Receiving Party shall, at the Disclosing Party's election, either return or certify in writing the destruction of all Confidential Information in tangible form, including all copies thereof, except that the Receiving Party may retain one copy in its legal files for record-keeping purposes.

Section 5. Compensation

In consideration for access to Confidential Information and for entering into this Agreement, Receiving Party shall pay to Disclosing Party a one-time fee of One Hundred Sixteen Thousand Dollars ($116,000.00), due within thirty days of the Effective Date. This fee is non-refundable unless the parties mutually agree to terminate this Agreement in writing prior to the initial disclosure of Confidential Information.

Section 6. Term and Termination

This Agreement shall commence on the Effective Date and shall continue for a period of one year, unless earlier terminated by either party. Either party may terminate this Agreement upon forty-five days' written notice to the other party. The confidentiality obligations imposed by this Agreement shall survive termination for a period of three years.

Section 7. Governing Law and Jurisdiction

This Agreement shall be governed by and construed in accordance with the laws of the State of Texas, without regard to its conflicts of law principles. Both parties consent to the exclusive jurisdiction of the state and federal courts located in Travis County, Texas.

Section 8. Entire Agreement

This Agreement constitutes the entire agreement between the parties regarding the subject matter and supersedes all prior negotiations, understandings, and agreements. No modification shall be effective unless made in writing and signed by both parties.

Section 9. Severability

If any provision of this Agreement is found to be invalid or unenforceable, such provision shall be modified to the minimum extent necessary to make it enforceable, and the remaining provisions shall continue in full force and effect.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, the parties have executed this Agreement as of the date first written above.
