NON-DISCLOSURE AGREEMENT

This Non-Disclosure Agreement (the "Agreement") is entered into as of January 15, 2024, between Soylent Inc., a Delaware corporation ("Disclosing Party"), and Wayne Corp., a Florida corporation ("Receiving Party").

Section 1. Purpose and Confidential Information
The parties desire to explore a potential business opportunity involving nutritional product development and distribution. In connection with this exploration, one party may disclose to the other party certain confidential and proprietary information, including but not limited to technical data, business plans, financial information, customer lists, manufacturing processes, formulations, marketing strategies, and other trade secrets (collectively, "Confidential Information").

Section 2. Obligations of Receiving Party
The Receiving Party agrees to maintain all Confidential Information in strict confidence and to protect such information using the same degree of care it uses to protect its own confidential information, but in no case less than reasonable care. The Receiving Party shall limit access to Confidential Information only to those employees, contractors, and advisors who have a legitimate need to know and who are bound by written confidentiality obligations substantially similar to those contained in this Agreement.

Section 3. Permitted Disclosures
The Receiving Party may disclose Confidential Information only in the following circumstances: (a) when required by law, court order, or regulatory authority, provided that the Receiving Party gives the Disclosing Party prompt written notice and reasonable opportunity to seek protective measures; (b) to legal counsel, auditors, and financial advisors under confidentiality obligations; and (c) with the prior written consent of the Disclosing Party.

Section 4. Exclusions from Confidential Information
Confidential Information shall not include information that: (a) is or becomes publicly available through no breach of this Agreement; (b) is rightfully possessed by the Receiving Party prior to disclosure, as evidenced by written records; (c) is independently developed by the Receiving Party without use of or reference to the Confidential Information; or (d) is rightfully obtained by the Receiving Party from a third party without confidentiality restrictions.

Section 5. Return or Destruction of Information
Upon termination of this Agreement or upon request by the Disclosing Party, the Receiving Party shall promptly return or certify in writing the destruction of all Confidential Information in tangible form, including copies, except that the Receiving Party may retain one copy in its legal files for compliance purposes.

Section 6. Compensation and Fees
In consideration for the mutual exchange of information and exploration of the business opportunity, Wayne Corp. agrees to pay Soylent Inc. the sum of One Hundred Thirty-Eight Thousand Dollars ($138,000.00) within thirty days of the execution of this Agreement. This payment constitutes full compensation for Soylent Inc.'s disclosure of Confidential Information and participation in preliminary discussions.

Section 7. Term and Termination
This Agreement shall remain in effect for a period of five years from the date of execution unless earlier terminated by either party. Either party may terminate this Agreement by providing written notice to the other party at least sixty days in advance of the intended termination date. The obligations under Sections 2, 3, 4, and 5 shall survive termination and remain in effect for the duration of the confidentiality term.

Section 8. No License or Obligation
Disclosure of Confidential Information shall not constitute a grant of license or rights to any intellectual property. Neither party shall be obligated to enter into any business relationship or transaction as a result of this Agreement.

Section 9. Governing Law and Jurisdiction

This Agreement shall be governed by and construed in accordance with the laws of the State of Florida, without regard to conflicts of law principles. Both parties consent to the exclusive jurisdiction of the state and federal courts located in Florida.

Section 10. Entire Agreement

This Agreement constitutes the entire agreement between the parties concerning the subject matter and supersedes all prior negotiations and understandings.
