NON-DISCLOSURE AGREEMENT

This Non-Disclosure Agreement ("Agreement") is entered into as of the date of last signature below ("Effective Date"), by and between Soylent Inc., a corporation organized under the laws of California ("Disclosing Party"), and Initech Corp., a corporation organized under the laws of Delaware ("Receiving Party").

Section 1. Purpose

The Parties wish to explore a potential business relationship and may disclose to one another certain confidential and proprietary information. This Agreement establishes the terms and conditions under which such information shall be protected.

Section 2. Definitions

"Confidential Information" means all non-public information disclosed by the Disclosing Party to the Receiving Party in connection with the contemplated business relationship, including but not limited to: technical data, trade secrets, business plans, financial information, customer lists, formulas, processes, software, and any other information marked as confidential or reasonably understood to be confidential given the nature of the information and circumstances of disclosure. Confidential Information excludes information that is or becomes publicly available through no breach of this Agreement, was rightfully possessed prior to disclosure, is independently developed without reference to the Confidential Information, or is rightfully received from a third party without confidentiality obligations.

Section 3. Obligations of Receiving Party

The Receiving Party agrees to: (a) maintain all Confidential Information in strict confidence using the same degree of care it uses for its own confidential information, but no less than reasonable care; (b) limit access to Confidential Information to employees, contractors, and advisors who have a legitimate need to know and who are bound by confidentiality obligations at least as restrictive as this Agreement; (c) use Confidential Information solely for the purpose of evaluating the potential business relationship; and (d) refrain from reverse engineering, disassembling, or attempting to derive the underlying composition or process of any Confidential Information without prior written consent.

Section 4. Permitted Disclosures

The Receiving Party may disclose Confidential Information only when required by law, court order, or governmental authority, provided that the Receiving Party gives the Disclosing Party prompt written notice of such requirement and cooperates with any efforts by the Disclosing Party to obtain protective orders or confidential treatment. The Receiving Party shall disclose only that portion of the Confidential Information that is legally required to be disclosed.

Section 5. Return or Destruction

Upon termination of this Agreement or upon request by the Disclosing Party, the Receiving Party shall, at the Disclosing Party's election, either return or certify destruction of all Confidential Information in tangible form and all copies thereof within thirty days, except that the Receiving Party may retain one archival copy for legal compliance purposes.

Section 6. Payment

The Receiving Party shall pay the Disclosing Party a one-time fee of forty-one thousand dollars ($41,000.00) within thirty days of the Effective Date. This fee constitutes consideration for the disclosure of Confidential Information and access to the Disclosing Party's representatives. Payment shall be made via wire transfer to an account designated by the Disclosing Party.

Section 7. No License or Obligation

Disclosure of Confidential Information grants no license or rights in the Confidential Information. Neither Party is obligated to enter into any business relationship, purchase any products or services, or proceed with any transaction contemplated by discussions.

Section 8. Term and Termination

This Agreement shall commence on the Effective Date and continue for a period of two years, unless terminated earlier. Either Party may terminate this Agreement upon thirty days' written notice to the other Party. Obligations regarding Confidential Information shall survive any termination of this Agreement for the remainder of the two-year term.

Section 9. Governing Law

This Agreement shall be governed by and construed in accordance with the laws of the State of California, without regard to conflicts of law principles.

Section 10. Entire Agreement

This Agreement constitutes the entire agreement between the Parties concerning the subject matter and supersedes all prior negotiations and agreements.
