Section 3. Definition of Confidential Information

Confidential Information means all non-public information disclosed by the Disclosing Party to the Receiving Party in written, oral, visual, or electronic form that is marked or identified as confidential or that reasonably should be understood as confidential given its nature and circumstances of disclosure. The Receiving Party agrees to: (a) maintain the Confidential Information in strict confidence using the same degree of care it uses for its own confidential information, but no less than reasonable care; (b) limit access to the Confidential Information to employees and consultants who have a legitimate need to know and who are bound by confidentiality obligations at least as protective as those contained herein; (c) use the Confidential Information solely for the Purpose stated in Section 2; and (d) not disclose, reproduce, distribute, or permit access to the Confidential Information except as expressly authorized in writing by the Disclosing Party.

Section 5. Compensation and Payment Terms

In consideration for the Receiving Party's review of the Confidential Information and exploration of the business opportunity, the Receiving Party shall pay to the Disclosing Party a fee of One Hundred Thirty-Five Thousand Dollars ($135,000.00). This fee shall be due and payable within thirty (30) days of the Effective Date. Payment shall be made via wire transfer to an account designated by the Disclosing Party.

This Agreement shall have an initial term of one (1) year from the Effective Date ("Term"), unless earlier terminated. Either party may terminate this Agreement without cause by providing the other party with forty-five (45) days' written notice. Obligations regarding Confidential Information shall survive termination for a period of three (3) years.

Section 7. Return of Confidential Information

Upon termination of this Agreement or upon request by the Disclosing Party, the Receiving Party shall promptly return or destroy all Confidential Information and provide written certification of such return or destruction within ten (10) business days.

Section 8. No License or Obligation

Nothing in this Agreement grants any license, rights, or obligations to the Receiving Party regarding the Confidential Information or any related intellectual property, nor does it obligate either party to enter into any business relationship or transaction.

Section 9. Governing Law
This Agreement shall be governed by and construed in accordance with the laws of the State of Delaware, without regard to its conflict of law principles.

Section 10. Entire Agreement
This Agreement constitutes the entire agreement between the parties and supersedes all prior understandings and agreements, whether written or oral.
