NON-DISCLOSURE AGREEMENT

This Non-Disclosure Agreement (the "Agreement") is entered into as of January 15, 2024 (the "Effective Date"), by and between Wayne Inc., a Delaware corporation ("Disclosing Party"), and Stark Corp., a Delaware corporation ("Receiving Party").

Section 1. Definition of Confidential Information

Confidential Information means all non-public, proprietary information disclosed by the Disclosing Party to the Receiving Party, including but not limited to technical data, trade secrets, business plans, financial information, customer lists, marketing strategies, software code, product designs, and any other information clearly marked as confidential or identified as such during oral disclosure. Confidential Information excludes information that is publicly available, independently developed, rightfully received from third parties, or required to be disclosed by law.

Section 2. Obligations of Receiving Party

The Receiving Party agrees to maintain the confidentiality of all Confidential Information using reasonable efforts consistent with industry standards. The Receiving Party shall limit access to Confidential Information to employees, contractors, and advisors who have a legitimate need to know and who are bound by written confidentiality obligations no less restrictive than those contained herein. The Receiving Party shall not disclose, reproduce, or use Confidential Information except as necessary to evaluate a potential business relationship between the parties.

Section 3. Permitted Disclosures

The Receiving Party may disclose Confidential Information if required by law, court order, or regulatory authority, provided the Receiving Party provides prompt written notice to the Disclosing Party, to the extent legally permitted, allowing the Disclosing Party to seek protective measures. The Receiving Party shall cooperate with the Disclosing Party in seeking appropriate protective orders or confidential treatment of the disclosed information.

Section 4. Term and Termination

This Agreement shall commence on the Effective Date and continue for a period of three (3) years unless earlier terminated by either party. Either party may terminate this Agreement upon sixty (60) days' written notice to the other party. Upon termination, the Receiving Party shall cease use of Confidential Information and, at the Disclosing Party's election, either return or securely destroy all Confidential Information and certify such destruction in writing within thirty (30) days.

Section 5. Compensation and Payment Terms

The Receiving Party shall pay the Disclosing Party a fee of Twenty-Two Thousand Dollars ($22,000.00) within thirty (30) days of the Effective Date of this Agreement. This fee constitutes consideration for the disclosure of Confidential Information and the opportunity to evaluate a potential business arrangement. Payment shall be made via wire transfer to the account designated by the Disclosing Party. Late payments shall accrue interest at the rate of one and one-half percent (1.5%) per month or the maximum rate permitted by law, whichever is less.

Section 6. No License or Obligation

Disclosure of Confidential Information grants no license, right, or obligation to the Receiving Party to purchase products or services or to enter into any business relationship. The Disclosing Party retains all intellectual property rights in Confidential Information. The Receiving Party acknowledges that possession of Confidential Information does not create any obligation to maintain secrecy beyond the scope of this Agreement.

Section 7. Return of Confidential Information

Upon termination of this Agreement or upon request by the Disclosing Party, the Receiving Party shall promptly return or destroy all Confidential Information and all copies thereof, including electronic and tangible forms, and provide written certification of such return or destruction within fifteen (15) business days.

Section 8. Governing Law and Jurisdiction

This Agreement shall be governed by and construed in accordance with the laws of the State of Delaware, without regard to conflicts of law principles. Both parties consent to the exclusive jurisdiction of the Delaware Court of Chancery.

Section 9. Entire Agreement

This Agreement constitutes the entire agreement between the parties and supersedes all prior negotiations and understandings. Amendments must be in writing and signed by authorized representatives of both parties.
