NON-DISCLOSURE AGREEMENT

This Non-Disclosure Agreement (the "Agreement") is entered into as of the date of last signature below (the "Effective Date"), by and between Wayne Inc., a corporation organized under the laws of the State of Delaware ("Disclosing Party"), and Bluth Corp., a corporation organized under the laws of the State of Texas ("Receiving Party").

Section 1. Purpose

The parties wish to explore a potential business relationship regarding the development and distribution of consumer electronics products. In connection with this evaluation, the Disclosing Party may disclose to the Receiving Party certain confidential and proprietary information. This Agreement sets forth the terms and conditions under which such information shall be protected and used.

Section 2. Definition of Confidential Information

"Confidential Information" means all information, whether written, oral, electronic, or visual, disclosed by the Disclosing Party to the Receiving Party, including but not limited to business plans, technical data, product specifications, customer lists, financial information, marketing strategies, source code, algorithms, and any other information clearly marked as confidential or identified as confidential at the time of disclosure.

Section 3. Exclusions from Confidential Information

Confidential Information does not include information that: (a) is or becomes publicly available through no breach of this Agreement; (b) was rightfully in the Receiving Party's possession prior to disclosure as evidenced by written records; (c) is independently developed by the Receiving Party without reference to or use of the Confidential Information; or (d) is rightfully received by the Receiving Party from a third party without confidentiality obligations.

Section 4. Permitted Use and Access

The Receiving Party agrees to use the Confidential Information solely for the purpose stated in Section 1 and shall limit access to employees, consultants, and advisors who have a legitimate need to know and who are bound by written confidentiality obligations no less restrictive than those contained herein. The Receiving Party shall not disclose Confidential Information to any third party without the prior written consent of the Disclosing Party.

Section 5. Protection of Confidential Information

The Receiving Party agrees to protect the Confidential Information using the same degree of care it uses to protect its own confidential information of similar nature, but in no event less than reasonable care. The Receiving Party shall implement appropriate administrative, technical, and physical safeguards to prevent unauthorized access or disclosure.

Section 6. Compensation

The Receiving Party agrees to pay the Disclosing Party the sum of One Hundred Thirty-One Thousand Dollars ($131,000.00) as consideration for disclosure of the Confidential Information and participation in discussions. This payment shall be made within thirty (30) days of the Effective Date via wire transfer to an account designated by the Disclosing Party.

Section 7. Return of Information

Upon termination of this Agreement or upon written request by the Disclosing Party, the Receiving Party shall promptly return or certify the destruction of all Confidential Information in tangible form, provided that the Receiving Party may retain one archival copy for legal compliance purposes.

Section 8. Term and Termination

This Agreement shall commence on the Effective Date and continue for three (3) years unless earlier terminated by either party upon sixty (60) days' written notice to the other party. The obligations under Sections 2 through 5 shall survive termination for the duration of the three-year term or for so long as the information remains confidential.

Section 9. No License or Obligation

This Agreement grants no license to any intellectual property and creates no obligation for either party to enter into any further business relationship or transaction.

Section 10. Governing Law

This Agreement shall be governed by and construed in accordance with the laws of the State of Texas, without regard to conflicts of law principles.

Section 11. Entire Agreement

This Agreement constitutes the entire agreement between the parties regarding the subject matter and supersedes all prior negotiations, understandings, and agreements.
