NON-DISCLOSURE AGREEMENT

This Non-Disclosure Agreement (the "Agreement") is entered into as of the date of last signature below (the "Effective Date") by and between Vandelay Inc., a corporation organized under the laws of the State of Delaware with its principal place of business at 123 Commerce Street, New York, New York 10001 ("Disclosing Party"), and Initech Corp., a corporation organized under the laws of the State of New York with its principal place of business at 456 Technology Drive, New York, New York 10002 ("Receiving Party").

Section 1. Confidential Information

The term "Confidential Information" means all non-public information disclosed by the Disclosing Party to the Receiving Party in connection with the evaluation of potential business opportunities, including but not limited to technical data, trade secrets, business plans, financial information, customer lists, marketing strategies, source code, algorithms, product specifications, and any other proprietary information clearly marked as confidential or identified as such at the time of disclosure.

Section 2. Permitted Use

The Receiving Party agrees to use the Confidential Information solely for the purpose of evaluating the potential business relationship between the parties (the "Purpose"). The Receiving Party shall not use the Confidential Information for any other purpose without the prior written consent of the Disclosing Party. The Receiving Party agrees to limit access to the Confidential Information to its employees, contractors, and advisors who have a legitimate need to know and who are bound by confidentiality obligations no less restrictive than those contained herein.

Section 3. Obligations of Receiving Party

The Receiving Party shall protect the Confidential Information using the same degree of care it uses to protect its own confidential information, but in no event less than reasonable care. The Receiving Party shall implement appropriate safeguards including physical, electronic, and procedural measures to prevent unauthorized access, use, or disclosure of the Confidential Information.

Section 4. Exclusions from Confidential Information

The obligations set forth in this Agreement shall not apply to any information that: (a) is or becomes publicly available through no breach of this Agreement; (b) was rightfully known to the Receiving Party prior to disclosure by the Disclosing Party as evidenced by written records; (c) is independently developed by the Receiving Party without access to or use of the Confidential Information; or (d) is rightfully received by the Receiving Party from a third party without confidentiality obligations.

Section 5. Compelled Disclosure

If the Receiving Party is required by law, court order, or regulatory requirement to disclose any Confidential Information, the Receiving Party shall, to the extent legally permitted, provide prompt written notice to the Disclosing Party to allow the Disclosing Party to seek protective measures. The Receiving Party shall disclose only that portion of the Confidential Information that is legally required to be disclosed.

Section 6. Payment

The Disclosing Party shall pay the Receiving Party the sum of One Hundred Fifty-Five Thousand Dollars ($155,000.00) as consideration for the Receiving Party's evaluation services hereunder. Payment shall be made within thirty days of the Effective Date via wire transfer to an account designated by the Receiving Party.

Section 7. Term and Termination

This Agreement shall commence on the Effective Date and continue for a period of one year, unless earlier terminated. Either party may terminate this Agreement upon sixty days' prior written notice to the other party. Sections 3, 4, 5, 7, and 8 shall survive any termination of this Agreement.

Section 8. Governing Law and Jurisdiction

This Agreement shall be governed by and construed in accordance with the laws of the State of New York, without regard to conflicts of law principles. Both parties consent to the exclusive jurisdiction of the state and federal courts located in New York County, New York.

Section 9. General Provisions

This Agreement constitutes the entire agreement between the parties and supersedes all prior negotiations and agreements. Any modification must be in writing and signed by authorized representatives of both parties.
