MASTER SERVICES AGREEMENT

This Master Services Agreement ("Agreement") is entered into as of the date of last signature below ("Effective Date") between Prestige Inc., a California corporation ("Service Provider"), and Bluth Corp., a Delaware corporation ("Client").

Section 1. Services

Service Provider shall provide comprehensive business consulting and operational optimization services as detailed in statements of work ("SOWs") to be mutually agreed upon in writing. Each SOW shall specify the scope, deliverables, timeline, and any fees specific to that engagement. Services shall commence upon written authorization from Client and shall be performed in a professional and workmanlike manner.

Section 2. Term and Termination

The initial term of this Agreement shall be one year from the Effective Date ("Initial Term"). This Agreement shall automatically renew for successive one-year periods unless either party provides written notice of non-renewal at least fifteen (15) days prior to the expiration of the then-current term. Either party may terminate this Agreement for material breach upon providing fifteen (15) days' written notice if the breaching party fails to cure such breach within that period. Either party may terminate for convenience without cause by providing fifteen (15) days' written notice.

Section 3. Fees and Payment

Client shall pay Service Provider a fixed fee of one hundred ninety-four thousand dollars ($194,000.00) annually for services rendered during the Initial Term. This fee shall be invoiced quarterly in equal installments of forty-eight thousand five hundred dollars ($48,500.00), due within thirty (30) days of invoice date. Any additional services requested beyond the scope of agreed SOWs shall be subject to separate pricing to be mutually agreed in writing before commencement. Client remains responsible for reimbursement of documented out-of-pocket expenses, including travel, materials, and third-party costs, upon presentation of receipts.

Section 4. Confidentiality

Both parties shall maintain the confidentiality of all proprietary information, trade secrets, and non-public data disclosed by the other party. Confidential information shall not be disclosed to third parties without prior written consent, except as required by law or court order. This obligation shall survive termination of this Agreement for a period of three (3) years. Information that becomes publicly available through no breach by either party shall not be deemed confidential.

Section 5. Intellectual Property

Any work product, methodologies, frameworks, or deliverables created specifically for Client as part of SOWs shall be owned by Client upon full payment of fees. Pre-existing intellectual property of Service Provider, including tools, templates, and general methodologies, shall remain the exclusive property of Service Provider. Service Provider retains the right to use generalizations and concepts learned during the engagement for other clients, provided no confidential information is disclosed.

Section 6. Limitations of Liability

Except for breaches of confidentiality or indemnification obligations, neither party shall be liable for indirect, incidental, consequential, special, or punitive damages. Service Provider's total liability under this Agreement shall not exceed the fees paid or payable in the twelve months preceding the claim. Client assumes all risks associated with implementation of Service Provider's recommendations.

Section 7. Indemnification

Service Provider shall defend, indemnify, and hold harmless Client from third-party claims that deliverables infringe intellectual property rights. Client shall defend, indemnify, and hold harmless Service Provider from claims arising from Client's use of deliverables beyond the scope authorized or Client's modification of deliverables without Service Provider's consent.

Section 8. Governing Law and Dispute Resolution

This Agreement shall be governed by and construed in accordance with the laws of the State of California without regard to conflicts of law principles. Both parties agree to attempt good faith resolution of disputes before pursuing litigation. Any legal action shall be brought exclusively in the state or federal courts located in California.

Section 9. General Provisions

This Agreement, together with any executed SOWs, constitutes the entire agreement between the parties. No modification is valid unless in writing and signed by authorized representatives of both parties. If any provision is found invalid, remaining provisions shall continue in effect.
